

KURDI GROUP

April 11, 2007

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATION LETTER

Being the leading real-state developer in Jordan we are keen to the best resources to fulfill our Group's mission and vision, We turned to ProGroup Consulting to develop a human resources management system for our group to enable us to attract the needed qualified resources and retain a satisfied and qualified employees.

The experience of ProGroup in developing human resources management systems facilitated the management of our business units by assessing us to adapt management strategy for our units, developing organizational structure and human resources management system.

We believe that the consultants of ProGroup have taken a step further to assist KG in better understanding key areas in the organization and have also helped to point out opportunities to improve working standards. They have significantly contributed in the development of our organization; we appreciate the commitment and understanding of your team and wish you all the success in your journey of creating the people edge for all your clients

Abdelwadood Al Kurdi
Deputy General Manager
Kurdi Group – Amman